"CRUISE CONTROL" CHRISTIANS

We have a lot of "Cruise Control" Christians today! They go to church Sunday morning for an hour or two and then put their life in "spiritual cruise control" for the rest of the week, living a spiritually effortless life caught up in the cares of life. They are hoping they can cruise through the week, and their lives without touching the other spiritual instruments such as: church, midweek Bible study, Bible reading, prayer and family devotions. It's true...you can cruise a little while without God. But, mark my word, you'll come to a crossroad in your life, and more than likely, it will be a crisis, trial, death, or divorce; and unless you have God to lean upon, you'll crash and pay the consequences.

Let's face it – we can't make it on our own in these last days! It's going to take all of God that we can get to make it. Friend, beware of the "cruise control" and put "Christ in control". Your trip through life will be a lot smoother.
